

Congress has no greater responsibility than to keep America safe and to ensure that those who are bravely serving our country in uniform are protected as best we know how – not just with armaments, equipment, and training while they serve – but with the benefits such as fair pay and the health insurance that they deserve. South Dakotans are proud to serve in uniform and our communities are proud of our men and women in uniform.

Back